Nomination of a representative

! The fastest way to nominate a representative is over the phone. See 'More information' below.

Alternatively, you can use this paper form to nominate a representative to deal with the ATO on your behalf and receive information about your taxation affairs. It can take up to 28 days to update our records after we receive the paper form.

It is important to know that:

- any nomination will continue indefinitely until you let us know that it no longer applies
- nominating a representative does not cancel any previous nomination.

You will need to phone us if you no longer want a nominated representative to act on your behalf. See 'More information'.

! When your representative makes enquiries on your behalf, they will be expected to verify their own identity as well as yours before discussing your taxation affairs. We cannot discuss your affairs with your representative unless your nomination has been recorded by us.

! If you are appointing a professional (such as a registered tax or BAS agent, barrister or solicitor) as your representative you cannot use this form. Visit www.ato.gov.au or phone us for more information.

Be clear about how much authority you give

Think carefully about the extent of the authority you are giving. The ATO will only discuss your taxation affairs with your representative according to your statement of authority on this form.
